

Media Release

Contact: Barbara Miller
Heritage Hill Foundation
(920) 435-2244
barb@heritagehillgb.org
browncountyhistory@gmail.com
<https://www.facebook.com/BCFHO/>

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 24, 2019

Sixteen Brown County Museums and History Organizations Open their Doors Free to the Public

The Brown County Federation of History Organizations (BCFHO) is excited to announce that it will once again host its History Treasure Tour on May 15, 2019 from 4:00pm until 8:00pm.

Sixteen Brown County Historical locations will open their doors for FREE, revealing many of the community's "hidden" treasures. This exciting event encourages the public to explore Brown County's rich historical past, while enjoying fun, hands-on activities, special behind-the-scenes tours, and exclusive access to expert staff in unique historical environments. Go to one location, or try and make them all, the night is yours to choose!

Participating organizations include:

Ashwaubenon Historical Society	The Historic Allouez Society
The Automobile Gallery	National Railroad Museum
Brown County Historical Society & Hazelwood	Neville Public Museum
Historic House Museum	Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Library & Museum
De Pere Historical Society White Pillars Museum	Oneida Nation Museum
Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society	UWGB Archives & Area Research Center
Green Bay Diocese Museum and Cultural Center	UWGB Richter Museum of Natural History
Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame	UWGB Viking House
Heritage Hill State Park

In addition to the History Treasure Tour, BCFHO is pleased to announce something new this year: Passport2History. This pass is a great way for residents and tourists alike to enjoy 10 different Brown County museums throughout the summer, at one great price. This program runs from May 25 through September 2, 2019, and the great thing is that Passports can be purchased the night of the History Treasure Tour on May 15th from participating locations.

Purchasing the Passport gives you one day admission to each of these unique locations:

Ashwaubenon Historical Society	Heritage Hill State Park
The Automobile Gallery	The Historic Allouez Society
Brown County Historical Society & Hazelwood	National Railroad Museum
Historic House Museum	Oneida Nation Museum
De Pere Historical Society White Pillars Museum	UWGB Archives & Area Research Center
Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society	