MINNEAPOLIS – The FBI Minneapolis Division has identified the individual fatally wounded in the officer involved shooting on Sunday January 13th at the White Lake rest area on Interstate 90 in South Dakota.

The person's name is Nathan Thoe, 34 from Hortonville, Wisconsin.

Thoe was the subject of an ongoing investigation by federal authorities. Thoe was known to be in and around the vicinity of Pierre, South Dakota for the past several months.

On the evening of January 13th, federal officers from more than one agency attempted to serve an arrest warrant on Thoe.

During the arrest, Thoe was shot and killed. The investigation into the details of the shooting continues and no further information will be available pending the outcome of the investigation.
