PROBABLE CAUSE:

The complainant alleges she is informed by the reports of Jeremy Weber and Michael Stone known to the complainant to be officers with the Manitowoc Police Department that the incident occurred between August 6, 2018 and December 3, 2019 in the City of Manitowoc, Manitowoc County, Wisconsin.

The reports of Jeremy Weber indicate the following:

On 4-21-2020, at approximately 1123hrs, I, Off Weber, was dispatched to VICTIM 1, Calumet Ave., to take a report of theft by a former employee.

Upon arrival, contact was made with business owner, VICTIM OWNER, who informed me that after a recent internal audit, it was discovered that his former employee, CHRISTINE RINGMEIER, had written herself several checks from the business account, which so far totaled over $44,000. VICTIM OWNER went on to say that CHRISTINE had been his office manager since 2010 and had been terminated for "lack of performance" in March 2020.

VICTIM OWNER said that an independent accountant had been doing an audit on his "books", in conjunction with his normal accountant, and it was discovered that there was approximately a $31,000 discrepancy in the business earnings and what was reported to the IRS for his 2018 tax filing. VICTIM OWNER also stated that his QuickBooks financial software did not reflect all of the business checks that had been written out and issued, and said that someone would have to manually go into the software to delete and alter such records, which is something that CHRISTINE would have had access to when she was still an employee of his.

VICTIM OWNER said he had already contacted United One Credit Union on S. 10th St., asking for them to get him copies of all of his business checks. VICTIM OWNER went on to say that CHRISTINE would have been issued her regular payroll check from this same account, which was normally in the area of $1500 every two weeks. VICTIM OWNER said what CHRISTINE was doing was writing herself an additional check, in an amount similar to her normal payroll amounts, then using the pre made signature stamp he had to "sign" the checks.

VICTIM OWNER stated that the checks written to CHRISTINE were both deposited by in-person or "night deposit" at the bank or by taking a picture on a phone and depositing them. Regardless of how the checks were deposited, they were deposited to CHRISTINE'S personal account.

I did confirm with VICTIM OWNER that he wished to pursue the issue criminally against CHRISTINE. VICTIM OWNER stated he wished to pursue the matter criminally and signed the Statement of Non-Consent, as well as being provided with a copy of the MTWC County Victim Info Sheet.

The reports of Michael Stone indicate the following:

On 04/29/20 I, Detective Sgt Stone, received an email from VICTIM OWNER that contained the information relating to the fraudulent transactions/checks that occurred. I downloaded the information to the PD evidence server. The items would consist of approximately a three-page statement from VICTIM OWNER stated 04/28/20 who is the president of OWNER that was notarized. He provided three exhibits as follows with documentation in each exhibit:

- Exhibit A:
 - A listing of the fraudulent checks that were cut without his permission and copies of the checks
- Exhibit B:
 - A document printed directly out of Quick Books

- Exhibit C:
 - The actual legitimate pay records that CHRISTINE RINGMEIER received including bonuses

I downloaded all of those records to the PD evidence server.

The following is a list of checks that would be fraudulent checks cut without the permission of VICTIM OWNER:

- #10239 dated 08/06/18 for $1373.38 written to CHRISTINE RINGMEIER and memo states pay period 08/16/18 - 08/30/18. The back of the check is endorsed CHRIS RINGMEIER
- #10250 dated 08/16/18 for $2500 written to CHRISTINE RINGMEIER. The check is endorsed CHRIS RINGMEIER

As I began to review what is labeled as Exhibit B, there is a listing of a loan adjusted by CHRISTINE for a total of $2445.30. The grand total of the theft by CHRISTINE RINGMEIER would be $47,129.36.

Exhibit C would be the pay periods for CHRISTINE RINGMEIER beginning 08/15/18 through 12/20/19. It lists the check number, date of the check, and amount of check.

On 04/29/20 I made telephone contact with VICTIM OWNER. As I spoke with VICTIM OWNER, he advised me CHRISTINE had worked for VICTIM from 07/16/12 and she was terminated on 03/23/20. She was employed there for nearly eight years. He stated CHRISTINE in the past had some debt from check into cash and he provided her with a personal loan to pay it down. He also confronted her about doing this again as this happened several years prior. He stated he loaned her $10,000 and she paid $250 per pay period back to him.

I spoke with him about the item listed for $2,445.30 on the documents he provided. VICTIM OWNER L stated this was a journal entry made by CHRISTINE and basically she made a payment without actually making a payment. He said it was a fraudulent payment on the loan that his new bookkeeper had caught. He said it was just a "out of the blue journal entry" that was created by CHRISTINE and it reduced the loan without his knowledge. He said CHRISTINE adjusted the numbers so he paid the $2,445.30 installment of her paying him back.

In the written statement that he had provided, he indicates he found three voicemails from 08/09/19, 08/21/19, and 08/30/19 from Pioneer Credit Recovery with a phone number of 877-383-8432. I spoke with him about those voicemail messages. VICTIM OWNER stated since replacing CHRISTINE, he began scrubbing information off of the phone and putting new voicemails on the phone for his new employees. He said while going through the phone, they have a separate voicemail entry where he discovered there were 55 undeleted voicemails from last year. He found these on 04/28/20. Three of the voicemails were from Pioneer Credit Recovery. It showed they were listened to but they were not deleted. He played all three of them in case this was something that related to his business. He said all three messages from Pioneer Credit Recovery asked to please call them back immediately to address a credit situation. None of the messages ever named who they were for and they left a callback number previously listed. VICTIM OWNER called Pioneer Credit Recovery and provided his name to them asking if this was for him and they said it was not. He provided CHRISTINE RINGMEIER's name and they did confirm these calls were reference to CHRISTINE RINGMEIER. VICTIM OWNER stated CHRISTINE took most of the calls for the business while she was at work.

VICTIM OWNER further talked about how this was discovered. He stated about five months ago he terminated his relationship with Schenk and switched over to an accountant in Sheboygan by the name of KENT AUGUSTINE to do his accounting work. Upon receiving information for VICTIM OWNER's taxes, KENT sent an email that his bank reconciliation must be incorrect on his end in Quick Books because in 2018 his checkbook showed $60,000 in checking but Quick Books only showed about $32,000 therefore it was off around $30,000. KENT told VICTIM OWNER that he would need to figure this out to file the 2019 taxes. Per KENT, this looked like a typical reconciliation error. VICTIM OWNER stated the $30,000 discrepancy was cleaned up and there were errors that were found to have been made with credit card payments. He said it was a completely separate issue than the fraudulent checks. As a result of this; however, he hired a retired bookkeeper from a local accounting firm that has experience with Quick Books. He had this female do some digging to see what the issue was. He said at this point he had no suspicions whatsoever that any of this was taking place and figured it was the reconciliation error that was brought up by KENT. He said his bookkeeper then sat down with him and showed what was found. She stated she had stumbled upon it when she really wasn't looking for it. While reconciling his United One Credit Union statements, she found a bunch of checks were missing and were deleted from Quick Books, but those checks had been deposited and cashed. VICTIM OWNER stated they only had the check numbers because images of the checks at United One Credit Union are only available for viewing online for six months. At that point they had no way of knowing what the checks were made out to. They took those 41 check numbers that were previously mentioned that had been deleted from Quick Books and requested that United One Credit Union print out the check copies that he had provided to me in Exhibit A. VICTIM OWNER explained if this was a physical check, one can go into Quick Books, create a check, print it, delete it out of Quick Books which is what was done. He said the check though is still "alive". He stated CHRISTINE would print out the check with her name on it and then delete it from Quick Books. She would then open his desk and obtain his name stamp and stamp his name at the bottom of the check. He said because she was a trusted employee, she would have had access to the keys to get into his desk. He said usually she would cut these checks sometime near a pay period. He said this would have been easy for CHRISTINE to do because in summer he usually leaves at about 12:15 pm. In August of 2018 is when CHRISTINE began to do this. VICTIM OWNER stated he was very busy at that time with his work and was very preoccupied.

I asked VICTIM OWNER if CHRISTINE ever discussed financial issues with him and he said not really. VICTIM OWNER said he tried to help her with her budgeting and she seemed to live beyond her means. He said CHRISTINE always had a new car, new stuff, talked about her manicures that she got twice a month that cost about $100 each time. He said CHRISTINE does not know how to budget her money. He did not feel she has a gambling addiction. He talked with me a little bit about the Payday Loans and felt it was reckless for CHRISTINE to do those types of loans. VICTIM OWNER further stated on 10/06/19 she wrote a $3000 personal check to help her pay down some of her Payday Loans but not pay them off. This is money he did not include in his loss that he reported to the police department. Between Christmas of 2019 and 03/23/20 when CHRISTINE was laid off, she had called in for approximately 60% of those workdays. He stated those days were paid sick days so she still got her full check amount. VICTIM OWNER stated the work was still getting done so he figured if the work is still getting done with her being gone 60% of the time, he really doesn't need her here so he laid her off. VICTIM OWNER said when he sat down CHRISTINE to do the layoff, he told her about it and she got up and it seemed like she was about to thank him. He said looking back on it now, he said perhaps she expected to be confronted about the missing money. However, that had not been discovered yet until after she had been laid off. After being told she was going to be laid off, CHRISTINE got up, said okay, and left. VICTIM OWNER said it seemed as though she was relieved.

I asked VICTIM OWNER if he had ever paid CHRISTINE in advance at her request. I pointed out I had seen two checks in particular where one of them listed the pay period as 04/01/19 to 04/15/19 but the check was dated 04/11/19 and another check was listed as the pay period from 05/16/19 to 05/31/19 but the check was made out on 05/22/19. VICTIM OWNER stated he had not done those checks early, as those checks were fraudulent, but in the eight years she was there, he had done that maybe two to three times for her. VICTIM OWNER stated none of the checks fell to a W2 and no taxes were paid on them. He said if he had authorized the payments to her, income taxes would have been withheld. VICTIM OWNER confirmed he banks with United One Credit Union. He said he does not know where CHRISTINE banks but thought perhaps Fox Community Credit Union based on the stamp on the back of the check. I asked him if he would take photos of the stamp that was used with his name on it and he stated he would. He did send me three photos of the stamp which were later downloaded to the PD evidence server. VICTIM OWNER did state he is requesting 100% restitution from CHRISTINE RINGMEIER in the amount of $47,129.36.

I reviewed the checks and on some of the checks I noticed there is a stamp on the back that says CFCU. On one of them in the endorsement space it specifically stated Community First Credit Union.

I made telephone contact with CARRIE PLEASANT at Community First Credit Union in Two Rivers. She would not confirm with me whether CHRISTINE RINGMEIER held an account there; however, did confirm their stamp does have CFCU on it. She asked if there was a routing number on there and I provided her with the number that was stamped on the back of some of the checks as 275982801. CARRIE PLEASANT was able to confirm that is a Community First Credit Union routing number.

On 05-06-2020 I, Detective Sgt. Stone, was assisted by the District Attorney's Office in drafting a Subpoena for Documents, Affidavit and Order of the Court. The Subpoena was reviewed and signed by ADA Prost. I brought the documents to Judge Dietz and she reviewed them and signed the Order of the Court.

The Subpoena is addressed to Community First Credit Union. It requests any and all bank records, including checking account(s), savings accounts(s), loans, including but not limited to sole and/or joint accounts of CHRISTINE A. RINGMEIER, DOB 08-03-1972. The timeframe of the records requested in 08-01-18 through 03-23-2020.

On 05-06-2020 I scanned the Subpoena and Order of the Court documents and emailed them to CARRIE PLEASANT at 1320 hrs. CARRIE had previously advised me to send the documents to her.

On 05/13/20 I, Detective Sgt Stone, received an email from MAI YIA YANG, a member research specialist with Community First Credit Union. The email contained the data requested in the subpoena that was sent to Community First Credit Union. That data was downloaded to the PD evidence server.

Upon reviewing the data, I was able to discover the following checks were deposited into CHRISTINE RINGMEIER's account:

- 10414
- 10416
- 10436
- 10463
- 10469
- 10477
- 10494
- 10541
- 10542

I had previously attempted contact with CHRISTINE RINGMEIER and set up an interview with her on 05/20/20 at 1:00 pm.

RINGMEIER responded to the PD and I began the interview with her at 1249 hours. The interview was audio recorded only as the interview was conducted in a room that did not have video surveillance. That audio recording was downloaded to the PD evidence server and the following is a summary of the interview.

I identified myself to CHRISTINE. I explained to her she did not have to talk to me and she could leave at any time and explained she was free to leave. I told her I suspected she knew what this was about and let her know she was not going to be going to jail today. I asked what she thought this was about and she said VICTIM and I confirmed that was correct. CHRISTINE stated she has not been sure how to come out about this and said VICTIM OWNER had treated her great and she's really struggled about it over the last year. She said last year she considered suicide because of how this tore her up about what she did. CHRISTINE stated "yeah I did it" and said she wanted to pay it back but did not know what to do once she got herself into that situation. She began crying saying she feels awful.

As I spoke with CHRISTINE, she stated she is not into drugs or gambling. She did this because of bills to take care of her family and that was it. She stated she got hurt by her dog, medical bills were piling up and cars were breaking down. She said it just kept coming at her. She said with all the medical bills and medications that they had to get, she began freaking out when she was paying the bills and making her Check into Cash loan payments. I asked CHRISTINE to tell me how things started. She stated bills kept coming in and she couldn't pay them off so she would cut herself an early payroll check but things kept coming in and things snowballed from there.

I asked CHRISTINE specifically what her job was at VICTIM. She confirmed she used Quick Books while at VICTIM. She said her job was to do everything there other than financial planning. She wasn't even sure about what her title was but said a good guess would be Administrative Assistant.

I asked CHRISTINE what she did with Quick Books regarding getting the extra checks cut to her. She said she wrote one and stamped it. CHRISTINE said the stamp was in VICTIM OWNER's drawer and the drawer was never locked. CHRISTINE said she would usually print checks that were in the area around the amount of her payroll checks. She said it wasn't her intention to keep doing that once she started but then something else would happen and it continued. When I asked her how many checks she wrote out, her response was "not a clue". I asked CHRISTINE what the amount of her payroll checks usually would be. She said they get paid twice a month, usually around the middle and end of the month, and the payroll checks average about $1300 to $1500. She said when they switched to Ameriprise she quit her other job and wasn't getting commission from her Medicare Supplements anymore. As a result, she said VICTIM OWNER raised her salary about $2 an hour. That was supposed to help offset that loss.

I asked CHRISTINE when she started doing this and she believed it was in February of 2019. I pointed out there was documentation showing it began in August of 2018. CHRISTINE said she would write one check but not take her next payroll check then. I pointed out that was not accurate as the payroll checks are also listed in the documentation I had and she was also collecting those.

I pointed out that some of the checks she had cut to herself were for a couple hundred dollars. CHRISTINE said those would be the checks that she did that were commission based checks. Those were also checks that were deleted. CHRISTINE stated in 2018 she would be the Medicare Supplement commissions every month. In 2019 that stopped. I pointed out one check in particular that was from August of 2018 for $1373 (and change). She stated she did not collect a payroll check because she had cut that check to herself; however, I pointed out that she actually had. CHRISTINE said she cut it as a payroll check, deleted it from Quick Books so there would be no record of it but there was still a physical check every time she cut a check. She did state she does her banking through Community First Credit Union and Bank First National and also does her mobile banking through Bank First National.

I reviewed the records with her of the checks and showed her the records of when she actually received her paychecks. She stated the checks that would be in the couple hundred dollar range should be Jack Schroeder commissions. She did tell me VICTIM OWNER did not know she was still taking the commissions. I asked her if she was supposed to be taking the commissions and she said "I honestly don't know." CHRISTINE said VICTIM OWNER told her she could not sell or do anything but she did not know if he was taking the commission based ones she already had coming in.

I asked CHRISTINE if she had an idea how much this all totaled and she said she did not. I told her it was a little over $47,000 and she did not believe it was that much. She said the stuff from 2018 she'd need to look at but she would agree with all of the 2019 stuff "100%". I showed her there were only three checks in 2018. I showed her the copy of the check with the dollar amount of $1,373.38 and she verified that was her signature on the back and agreed that Bank First National will confirm it is in her account.

We next reviewed the records I had. I showed her one amount that was for $2,500 even and she said that should be a bonus. I pointed out that VICTIM OWNER had provided us where the bonuses would be and I pointed out this $2,500 check was deleted from Quick Books. I pointed out the last check in 2018 was from December of 2018 and she said that would have been a check to help for Christmas. CHRISTINE stated she is not going to fight any of this. She stated she "fucked up so bad" and said her life is a mess.

CHRISTINE spoke with me about the medical problems she was dealing with at the time. She said she had hurt her ankle on the front porch where it got cut and infected and she had to have three months of treatment which resulted in a lot of medical bills and bills for different medications. She also had about a six-week stint where she believed she had COVID-19 and was seeing several doctors earlier this year as a result of that. It should be noted however these checks all stopped at the end of 2019. CHRISTINE stated she is now very worried about all of this happening and what is going to happen as a result of her being charged. She again confirmed with me that the bills that were piling up would include the medical bills for her, medication for her, and her Check into Cash loans. She stated her son had also gotten hurt during this time period and he had doctor and physical therapy bills. Her daughter also hurt her knee and more bills were coming in and they also had other problems such as cars breaking down and everything was just nickeling and diming her. She stated she felt really bad for what she did to VICTIM OWNER as he treated her well at work.

After receiving and reviewing the documents from Community First Credit Union, it was obvious to me there might have been another bank involved. I began contacting local banks checking what their routing number was. I ultimately noticed a routing number of 075901134 on the back of numerous checks that said BFN on some of them as well. I contacted PAUL SCHMERTZLER of Bank First National who verified that was Bank First National's routing number.

On 05/19/20 I was assisted by the DA's Office in drafting a subpoena for documents for Bank First National. The requested documents include any and all bank records including checking accounts, savings accounts, loans including but not limited to sole and/or joint accounts of CHRISTINE A. RINGMEIER DOB 08/03/72 for a time period of 08/01/18 through 03/23/20. These documents were reviewed by Judge Dietz, signed and turned over to me on 05/21/20 at 0911 hours. I faxed this to Bank First National on 05/21/20 at 0933 hours.

On 05/22/20 I had also contacted VICTIM OWNER advising him what was taking place with the interview and where the investigation was at this point. I asked him specifically about the Schroeder commissions that CHRISTINE referred to and he said he was not aware of what she was referring to. He did advise me the bookkeeper that discovered the missing checks in Quick Books would be LYNN BARTLEME.

On 05/28/20 I received an email from TAUYNA DUVENECK, Deposit Operations Specialist at Bank First National at 402 N 8th St, Manitowoc. This contained the records from the subpoena that had been requested. Those records were downloaded to the PD evidence server and the following is a summary of those records.

Upon reviewing the records from Bank First National, it also showed several of the mobile deposits. When I compared the amounts from several of the checks that were fraudulently cut by CHRISTINE to herself, I found they had been deposited either through mobile deposit at Bank First National or at Bank First National branches. Some of those would include the following checks:

- 10239
- 10327
- 10358
- 10366
- 10380
- 10390
- 10424
